NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject:— Arrangements in the Railway Audit Office.

Certain proposals relating to the re-arrangement of the Public Works and Railway Secretariats and the allocation of certain officers of those Departments were considered in Council and they have been dealt with in detail in my Final Note dated the 19th April 1920.

One of the proposals agreed to by the Council was in connection with certain arrangements in the Railway Audit office. The Council resolved that the post of Deputy Comptroller, Railway Audit, may be given to Mr.Lakshminarasimha Row, Mr.Bistopant Badami being transferred to the Civil Branch of the Comptroller's office.

As some of the proposals relating to the re-arrangement of the Public Works and Railway Secretariats have to be re-considered about which action is being taken separately, orders are necessary on the remaining proposals.

The recommendation of the Council about the arrangements in the Railway Audit Office referred to above, may be graciously approved.
